NAZARETH

Things are really cool in Nazareth,
Our city is full of joy,
'Cos this is where girl meets boy.
Barely out of school in Nazareth,
Parents join hand in hand,
This is our one night and
A wedding is being planned,
Here in Nazareth.

Nazareth, the place to live,
Always willing to forgive,
Nazareth, your big heart swells,
We can hear those wedding bells.

Feeling in a fix in Nazareth,
Rules there to be obeyed,
Arrangements are being made.
Got to get your kicks in Nazareth,
Maybe you'll run away,
Start out a brand new day,
Still you cannot betray
Good old Nazareth.

THE ECHO CAROL

(2 parts)

For a bed in a shed down in Bethlehem,
Many, many years ago.
On a heap of hay, on a special day,
A little baby lay his head.

Noble kings from afar saw a silver star,
Give a smile to the town below.
And the shepherds knew what they had to do
When an angel to them said:

Will you sing? (Will you sing)
'He's the King' ('He's the King')
It's the message we bring this Christmas,
Will you hear? (Will you hear?)
Will you cheer? (Will you cheer?)
With joy?
Will you stay? (Will you stay?)
Will you pray? (Will you pray?)
For the baby that's born this Christmas?
Will you tell? (Will you tell?)
Will you welcome this boy?

Though the story of glory in Bethlehem,
Was so many years ago,
Though the scene has gone, yet the truth lives on
In the Lord's own son today.

For the message He brought and the things He taught,
Are for all of the world to know.
And His love's the same as the hour He came
So we'll join in song to say:

Will you sing? (Will you sing?)……

(key change)
Will you sing? (Will you sing?)……

…..This blessed infant boy!
