

Mutual Respect

The school met Bart Gee, who was born with the disability Arthrogryposis. He taught us about resilience but also mutual respect.

The Grove demonstrating gratitude towards each other through simple acts of kindness.

One of our Remembrance Day displays. The community acknowledge those who have sacrificed themselves for our safety. We will remember them.

Children's kindness work displayed from Anti-Bullying week when they designed their own kindness superheroes!